Innovative sun protection for refrigerated freight

Customers worldwide will now benefit from this free additional service

Now that the expansion of the Lufthansa Cargo Cool Center in Frankfurt has begun and the Road Feeder Service Cool, the first of its kind in the world, has been introduced, Europe's leading cargo airline is pushing forward with its offensive in the refrigerated freight sector. Every customer's cargo in the passive refrigeration sector worldwide will now be protected without any added fees by a reflective film produced exclusively for Lufthansa Cargo. "Our aim is to offer top quality transport for our customers' freight, both in the air and on the ground. The free offer of our new special film underscores our dedication to high quality and perfects our refrigeration service", said

Sören Stark, Board Member Operations at Lufthansa Cargo.

In any case, Lufthansa Cargo is keeping its transit times between its facilities and aircraft as short as possible. The innovative reflective film provides sensitive shipments with optimum protection against the unavoidable sunlight on airport tarmacs around the world, even on hot summer days
